Summaries are made up of disclosure requirements known as “Elements”. These Elements are numbered in Sections A-E (A.1-E.7). This summary contains all the Elements required to be included in a summary for the Notes, the Issuer and the Guarantor. Because some Elements are not required to be addressed, there may be gaps in the numbering sequence of the Elements. Even though an Element may be required to be inserted in the summary because of the type of securities, issuer and guarantor, it is possible that no relevant information can be given regarding the Element. In this case a short description of the Element is included in the summary with the mention of “not applicable”.

Following the implementation of the relevant provisions of Directive 2003/71/EC (the “Prospectus Directive”) in each relevant Member State of the European Economic Area, no civil liability will attach to any Issuer or the Guarantor in any such Member State solely on the basis of this Summary, including any translation hereof, unless it is misleading, inaccurate or inconsistent when read together with the other parts of the Prospectus and the applicable Final Terms or it does not provide, when read together with the other parts of the Prospectus and the applicable Final Terms, key information (as defined in Article 2.1(s) of the Prospectus Directive) in order to aid investors when considering whether to invest in the Notes.

Section D – Risks

Element	Title
D.2	Key risks that are specific to the Issuers and the Guarantor	The key risks relating to the Issuer and the Guarantor are set out below: (a) the Group’s sales or margins may be materially adversely affected by competition or an inability to respond to rapid changes in consumer preferences; (b) the Group is vulnerable to brand damage which could result in the loss of revenue associated with the affected brands and higher costs to address these circumstances, including those associated with product recall events; (c) accidental or malicious contamination of raw materials or products in the supply chain may result in loss of products, delay in supply, loss of market shares, financial costs and adverse health effects on consumers or loss of reputation; (d) sourcing raw materials globally exposes the Group to price fluctuations and supply uncertainties which are subject to factors such as commodity market price volatility, currency fluctuations, changes in governmental agricultural programs, harvest and weather conditions, crop disease, crop yields, alternative crops and by-product values. Underlying base material price changes may result in unexpected increases in costs of raw material and packaging, and the Group may be unable to fully reflect these increases by raising prices without suffering reduced volume, revenue and operating income; (e) the Group’s success depends in part on anticipating the tastes and dietary habits of consumers and to offer products that appeal to their preferences; (f) the food industry including the Group is faced with the global challenge of rapidly rising obesity levels; and (g) the Group issues term debt to raise finance and depends on broad access to capital markets and investors. Changes in demand for term debt instruments on capital markets could limit the ability of the Nestlé Group to fund operations. The Guarantor also depends on the willingness of banks to provide the type of credit lines or loans which are used by the Group.
D.3	Key risks that are specific to the Notes	There are also risks associated with the Notes including a range of risks relating to the structure of the Notes, market risks and risks relating to Notes generally including that: (i) changes in prevailing market interest rates could affect the value of the Notes which bear interest at a fixed rate; (ii) Notes may be subject to early redemption, which may limit the market value of the Notes and an investor may not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds in a manner which achieves a similar effective return; (iii) Bearer Notes in new global note form may not satisfy Eurosystem eligibility criteria; (iv) the Terms and Conditions of the Notes may be modified without the consent of all investors in certain circumstances; (v) the holder of the Notes may not receive payment of the full amounts due in respect of the Notes as a result of amounts being withheld by the Issuer in order to comply with applicable law; (vi) investors are exposed to the risk of changes in law or regulation affecting the value of their Notes; (vii) the value of an investor’s investment may be adversely affected by exchange rate movements where the Notes are not denominated in the investor’s own currency;
