
Press release

Vevey, 14 November 2014

Nestlé to explore strategic options for the development of Davigel

As part of its on-going portfolio review, Nestlé announced today that it is exploring strategic options for the development of its subsidiary Davigel, a leading provider of branded frozen and chilled food products, ice-cream and solutions for out of home in Europe. This mainly involves identifying a partner to help Davigel in its next stage of growth while safeguarding the best interests of employees, customers and shareholders.

Contacts

Media

Robin Tickle

Tel.: +41 21 924 22 00

Investors

Tel.: +41 21 924 35 09