

Good food, Good life

Biography

Version October 2024

Lenz Anna
Nestlé Portugal CEO

Anna Lenz joined the Nestlé Group in 2004 at the headquarters in Switzerland, beginning her career in auditing, which led to her working in 29 countries around the world.

After two years at Nestlé UK & Ireland, she joined Nespresso Italia as CFO. In 2013, she was transferred to the Nespresso headquarters in Switzerland to take on the role of Head of Corporate Controlling.

In 2017, she was appointed Director for Nespresso in Portugal, where she oversaw one of Nespresso's most successful European markets, ensuring growth in a highly competitive environment. In early 2020, she became the CEO of Nespresso Europe and was appointed to the Nespresso Global Board.

Since July 2022, Anna Lenz has served as CEO of Nestlé Portugal, managing a portfolio of more than 90 brands. At Nestlé Portugal, Anna Lenz leads a team of over 2,800 employees, located at the factories in Avanca and Porto, the headquarters in Linda-a-Velha, the Avanca Distribution Center and several commercial delegations covering the entire country.

She holds a degree in mathematics from ETH Zurich in Switzerland and an Executive MBA from London Business School. Fluent in six languages, Anna Lenz is married and has three children.