

Ulf Mark Schneider

Ulf Mark Schneider (50) has served as CEO of Fresenius Group since May 2003. He joined Fresenius in November 2001 as CFO of Fresenius Medical Care. Previously, Schneider held several senior executive positions since 1989 with Haniel Group, a privately held, diversified German multinational company. He has a graduate degree in Finance and Accounting and a doctoral degree in Business Administration from the University of St. Gallen/Switzerland. He also holds an MBA from Harvard University. Schneider was born and raised in Germany and became a U.S. citizen in 2003. He is a non-executive director of U.S. chemical company E.I. DuPont de Nemours and chairs Harvard Business School's European Advisory Board.
